On February 8, the State of New York celebrated “P.S I Love You Day”. This was the 4th year in a row that OHMS celebrated it. Students and staff were asked to wear purple to show their peers that no matter what group we hang out with or what our interests may be, we are all here for one another and there is always a support network here for us. Led by Ms. Castracane’s and Ms. Toole’y 6th grade ELA classes, students partook in a Project Based Learning opportunity where they investigated the devastating effects bullying can have on a person, and worked together to promote mental health awareness while showing how much a simple act of kindness can impact somebody’s day.

A celebration fair was held where all the students’ hard work was displayed and all 6th grade classes were asked to share in their knowledge. The activities included making your own stress ball, getting photos with peers, signing an anti-bullying petition, participating in a “pick a duck” trivia game and choosing a Random Act of Kindness challenge card to continue to spread the love. Not only did students walk away with plenty of purple souvenirs, but a message that will last them a lifetime.

EMERGENCY CLOSINGS UPDATE

To date, Westhill has utilized five (5) emergency closing days, which depletes the bank of emergency days built into the 2018-19 school calendar.

In the event the Westhill schools are closed one (1) more day between now and May 23, 2019, school will be in session on Friday, May 24, 2019.

If additional days are required, updates regarding any potential impact on the scheduled April break will follow.
Lunar New Year

Mrs. Merritt’s kindergarten class learned about Lunar New Year. They participated in a dragon dance, made Chinese lanterns, koi, tang ram pictures and Chinese characters. Gung Hay Fat Choy!

K Students Learn About Penguins

To kick-off our penguin science unit, kindergarten classes visited the zoo in early December. The children learned about the types of penguins, penguin habitat, body parts, life cycle and how they find and eat food.

Fitness Fridays: Gymnastics Fun

The Site-Based Team at Walberta Park is pleased to have West Side Gymnastics School return to provide classes before school to our students. The children are enjoying using a springboard, learning tumbling, flips, cartwheels and handstands. What a great way to learn new skills and start the day in a healthy way!

STEAM Activities

In December, WPS library hosted Onondaga Free Library children’s librarian, Maggie Gall-Maynard. Known as Mrs. Maggie by students and patrons of OFL, the vibrant librarian shared several science, art and technology related activities during the student’s computer classes. Excited students worked in groups to build and solve mazes, code miniature bots and draw using a computer. Mrs. Maggie also shared that there would be several fun upcoming events at OFL. Check out their schedule of events at: https://oflibrary.org.
Illustrator Visits WPS and CRS

In January, local illustrator, London Ladd, visited students at Walberta Park and Cherry Road Schools. Mr. Ladd has illustrated several picture books and biographies. He shared examples of his work as well as stories from his childhood. His inspiring presentation left students with the message, that with hard work and determination, we can achieve great things! This visit was funded through the Westhill Educational Foundation as part of the district wide diversity grant and organized by librarians, Aneisa Linton and Karin Backus.

CRS Shows Kindness

Working on the character strength of kindness, CRS students brought toiletries to school to donate to the Samaritan Center. Over 20 boxes of toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, shampoo and more were collected and presented to the center at our annual holiday sing-a-long assembly on December 21. A representative from the center told students how their donations would benefit others and shared the mission of their work. Our hearts were filled knowing we helped others!

Potsdam Pitches Visit CRS

Students at Cherry Road School enjoyed a performance by college a cappella group, The Potsdam Pitches. Fourth grade choir students also took part in a masterclass and performed the final song of the assembly with the group. This was made possible by a Westhill Educational Foundation grant submitted by music teacher, Sarah Colaluca.
Wildlife Corridors

Third graders at Cherry Road School have been learning about what happens to animals when their habitat changes. For several weeks, the students have been scientists gathering information in various ways (games, camera traps, fossils, reading). As a final project, the students had to use the Engineering Design Process and collaborate in groups to plan a way to help salamanders get safely to a pool of water to lay their eggs. A busy road stood in the way. Groups had to work within a budget, follow certain criteria and use only available materials. Each group of children created a model of a wildlife corridor, in this case a tunnel under the road, which they felt would allow the salamanders to get to the pool safely. Pictured are Max, Charlie and Rider proudly displaying their model.

Sharing

Second grade students from Mrs. Geiss’, Mrs. Lootens’ and Mrs. Kisselburgh’s second grade classes wrote and shared books about schools in different parts of the world. They learned about boat schools in Bangladesh, doorstep schools in India and tent schools in Haiti. The students not only shared information with each other, they had a chance to admire the work of others.

Candy Cane Grams

National Short Story Day

Did you know that there is a National Short Story Day? It just happens to fall on the shortest day of the year. The students at OHMS celebrated this occasion by exploring the genre of short stories, and used it to create some of their own. There were stations for steps in writing a short story. Of course, you can’t have a short story celebration without hot chocolate and marshmallows. Each student left with a colorful pen to inspire them to keep writing. It was such a popular event, we look forward to celebrating it again next year!

We Rise Above the Streets

What are human rights and how do real people and fictional characters respond when those rights are threatened? Students in Mrs. Bove’s 5th grade class investigated this question in the first module of the newly adopted English-Arts Curriculum (EL 2017). Mrs. Bove’s students developed their ability to read and understand complex text as they considered this question. Woven into this study are habits of character that correlate with the Positivity Project - how can students work to contribute to a better world? To answer this question and as part of a project based learning experience, Mrs. Bove’s students welcomed Alamin Muhammad from We Rise Above the Streets Recovery Outreach into their classroom. Mr. Muhammad shared information about his organization, and the work they do to assist the homeless, handing out brown bag lunches on what is called, Sandwich Saturdays. Mrs. Bove’s students were inspired by Mr. Muhammad’s work and saw this as their opportunity to contribute to a better world in our own community of Syracuse, NY. The students got to work and even involved the entire school in this project by collecting everything needed to make almost a hundred sandwiches that were delivered to Mr. Muhammad for distribution on “Sandwich Saturday”. Students from Mrs. Bove’s class were invited to present their learning and project to the Westhill Board of Education at a recent meeting.

Game Makers

Exciting things are happening at the OHMS Maker Club! On January 30 and February 6, the students were visited by Jason Engle from Play the Game Read the Story located in Destiny USA. He brought in a variety of games for the students to play and experiment with. We’re not talking about Candyland or Monopoly, many of the games require high-level thinking and problem solving skills. One of the games even had a hexbug. Jason also shared his knowledge with the students about what makes a great game. In the coming weeks, students will use his advice and this gaming experience to create their own games. We can’t wait to see what ideas the students develop. Stay tuned for more information on an epic game playing event where you can experience these student created games for yourself.

Robotics Team Ties for First

Congratulations to the OHMS VEX Robotics team as they have competed in two regional competitions so far this year. Their first competition was at the MOST here in Syracuse and resulted in a first place finish. Just recently, the team traveled for a competition at SUNY Oswego. Although the team did not take first at Oswego, it was a very successful competition. Both competitions were not only great learning experiences for the team but their first place finish qualifies them to compete at the New York State Championship held in March. Team members include Jane Angel, Kaelin Feliu, Kosta Georgiadis, Elizabeth Gluz and Alexandra LoCurto. Congratulations to all the team members, and thank you to Mr. Crowell and Mr. Maniccia for organizing and volunteering their time!

OHMS Geography Bee

February 2019 marks the start of the Alpine World Ski Championships. This competition will be held in which country that is the most populous in Scandinavia? The answer is Sweden, and was correctly answered by Sean Rogers, who was declared the OHMS school champion of the 2019 National Geographic Geography Bee. Seventeen students competed in the school final double-elimination contest. Sean Rogers and Aidan Ryan, the last 2 students standing, competed in the championship round. Sean will now complete a written test to qualify for the State competition in Albany. Prior to the finals, a school-wide assessment was given, with the following students (along with Sean and Aidan) scoring the highest for the right to compete. They were Mackenzie Caccamo, Cade Caloia, Bodie Centore, Alexander Dacko, Emily Dalton, Luke Gilmartin, Lee Hynes, David Kleberg, Lizzy McPeak, Sam Militello, Justin Nowicki, Caitlin Sisson, Alex Tyszka, Zach Valenza and Jack VanEpps. These students should be very proud of themselves. They all answered a variety of very challenging questions during the final rounds. Good luck to Sean as he continues on representing OHMS.

OHMS Book Club

As a result of student interest, the OHMS Book Club was started this year. The club organized and chose their first book, a historical fiction, “Beyond the Bright Sea,” by Lauren Wolk. Their latest selection is a mystery, “The Van Gogh Deception,” by Deron Hicks. The story is leading students to discover how a young boy ended up alone in the National Gallery of Art in Washington, DC. As they learn about the boy and his identity, they are also learning about famous artwork displayed in the museum by viewing QR codes that allow them to view the art mentioned. The students look forward to meeting, reading and enjoying a light snack as they discuss the latest book. Thank you to Mrs. Hodgens for organizing this new club.

Art Room Happenings

The 6th grade students are designing name drawings that will be covers for their sketchbooks. They looked at a few examples of adult coloring pages for inspiration, and ran with it. Wow these covers are really creative and unique! The artists are working on adding patterns and shading into their art as well as showing originality. Shown here is Claire Detor’s sketchbook cover.

The amazing OHMS 5th graders are working on an ongoing book project that we started back in September in Enrichment Art and is slated to wrap up by spring open house. The animal themed accordion books are full of adventures and quite a few different art materials: pencil, colored pencil, watercolor pencil/paint, crayon, marker, tempera paint, fabric, clay, scratch art, glitter and so much more! Mrs. Feyerabend so appreciates the careful thought and hard work that goes into developing these books. This sample, called “Clumsy Mouse,” is being created by author and illustrator Anna Jackson.

at WHS Auditorium on March 29 and 30

You can’t stop the beat in this wonderful adaptation of Hairspray about one girl’s inspiring dream to dance and change the world!

This year (Director) Mrs. Kathleen Tompkins and her crew; Mrs. Karen Cortez, Mrs. Maggie Feyerabend and Ms. Christina Gullotto have cast over (80) OHMS students in this outstanding musical. The students are all working very hard and look forward to sharing with everyone their amazing singing, dancing and acting talents at their show.

FBLA Visits St. Lucy’s

On Friday, December 7, members of FBLA travelled to St. Lucy’s gym on Gifford Street to assist with the set up of their Holiday Gift Program. While there, students put up the Christmas tree, folded and hung clothes, organized toys and assisted where they were needed. St. Lucy’s Holiday Gift Program provides gifts and food for members of the surrounding community. FBLA has participated in this event for the last 12 years.
Central Winds Concert

Congratulations to Westhill High School choral musicians, Cami Cortez, DJ Caloia, Thomas Chaddock, Dominick Carfagno, Zoe Hynes, Kaley Richmond, Sophia Frost, Ashley Wiezalis, Mark Olesh, Jake Czaplicki, and Sophia Rubino, for being selected to the Central Winds Honors High School All Star Chorus and to Westhill High School choral director, Mr. Joe Buchmann, for the honor of having his students selected to the ensemble. The All-Star Chorus was comprised of nearly one hundred outstanding high school singers from all across Central New York, nominated to the ensemble on the basis of their choral accomplishments.

The All-Star Chorus performed at Pine Grove Middle School (ESM) in concert with the Central Winds Music Educators’ Wind Ensemble in late January. Westhill Instrumental music department faculty, Mrs. Erin Tapia (piccolo), Mrs. Elizabeth Buell (baritone saxophone), Mr. Corey Riley (trombone) and retired band faculty Mr. Tony Mastrobattisto (alto saxophone) perform regularly with the Central Winds.

Central Winds repertoire included works alone by Leonard Bernstein, Brian Balmages, Julie Giroux, Ron Nelson and John Mackey, and the All-Star Chorus performed works alone by David Dickau and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. The Ensembles combined to perform Aaron Copland’s The Promise of Living from The Tender Land and the finale to Carl Orff’s Carmina Burana.

World Population Project

High school algebra students completed a world population project where they predicted the population of two countries of their choosing and had to display their results on the whiteboard areas in the classrooms and hallways of the newly renovated 3rd floor in the high school.

The project was a part of the exponential growth unit in the algebra curriculum. The expectations of the project were to research the growth and/or decline rates of two countries populations and use that rate in the formula for exponential growth to predict the population of that country at some point in the future. The students also had to research what was currently happening in their country to account for the country’s growth or decline. The project included both a mathematical component and writing component that provided students with a real world application of the concept of exponential growth.
World AIDS Day Poster Contest

Students in Mrs. D’Angelo’s Health classes made posters for World AIDS Day to help raise awareness of the on-going problem with HIV and AIDS among teens. Although the number of people dying from AIDS has declined over the last 20 years, more than one in five people infected today are 13-24 years of age. Spreading a message of prevention is extremely important in protecting our youth. Students hung their posters in the school halls and bathrooms to help spread the message. This year, the Central New York HIV Care Network also had a World AIDS Day poster contest. Four students entered the contest and won gift cards for their poster entries. John Wikiera, Chairperson for the HIV Care Network, came to school to talk to the students about their posters and present them with the gift cards. Congratulations to Grace Stensland, Hannah D’Agostino, Makenna Robbins and Ryan Durand!

ACCES-VR Workplace Readiness Training

At the end of February, a group of high school students will be participating in the ACCES-VR Workplace Readiness Training. In general, the ACCES-VR Workplace Readiness Training provides training to students regarding the importance of work, establishing work ethics, demonstrating appropriate work behavior and developing professional social skills. It is an afterschool program that provides students with the skills necessary to obtain and maintain an entry level position following graduation.

Students will understand appropriate work behaviors and demonstrate the ability to meet employer expectations, including but not limited to timelines and performance. They will participate in mock interviews, complete applications (paper, pencil and electronic applications), develop a resume and may attend job fairs. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the impact of personal social media profiles and other communication (e.g. appropriate email address, voicemail messages) in addition, students will complete a pre- and post-evaluation to measures skills attainment.

Transportation to Nonpublic Schools

Following the guidelines of Section 3635 of New York State Education Law, the Westhill Central School District is advising the parents of students seeking transportation to a nonpublic school that a written request must be submitted to the Westhill Board of Education by April 1st of the preceding year. New residents may submit their request after the April 1st deadline, but must do so within thirty days after establishing residence in the district and must also submit a residency affidavit. The school board may refuse to grant a late transportation request where additional expenses and new transportation arrangements would be necessary. A formal transportation request form may be received directly from the nonpublic school at the time of enrollment and must be completed and received at the Westhill Central School District prior to April 1, 2019. The transportation request form and residency affidavit may be found on the Westhill CSD website under Transportation.

On days in which public schools are scheduled to be closed, in accordance with the Westhill school district calendar, the district is not obligated to transport to the nonpublic schools. Under no circumstances may transportation be provided on legal holidays or Saturdays.
